

National online lost and found pet registers

If you register your lost or found animal via our website, it will automatically be placed on the RSPCA National Lost and Found Pet Register and, with your permission, on the online National Pet Register (www.nationalpetregister.org). There are other good national online registers which you may want to search and register with.

Other free, well-established national online lost and found registers (all pets):

Animal Search UK: <http://www.animalsearchuk.com>; 0788 43 169 43. This has just begun a system of local volunteers who will help you in your search for your pet or the owner of a lost pet.

Pet Search UK: <http://www.petsearchuk.org.uk>; 01889 562907; petsearch.steele@ukonline.co.uk. This also operates a system of local volunteers who will help you in your search for your pet or the owner of a lost pet.

Other good national online lost and found registers (all pets):

Paw Trax: <http://www.pawtrax.co.uk> – this is a relatively new list with the clever feature of searching via a Google map; also sends email alerts to vets, etc.

Lostyourpet: <http://www.lostyourpet.net> – charge £5 to register lost, free for found; it emails you if a similar pet shows up on the list.

Found and Lost Pets: <http://www.foundandlostpets.co.uk> – charge £5 to register lost, free for found

The best free national online cats-only lost and found registers:

Lost My Cat: <http://www.lostmecat.org>

My Moggy: <http://mymoggy.com> – a real person (Sue) at the other end.

The best free national online dogs-only lost and found register:

Doglost: <http://www.doglost.co.uk>; lost or found registered by phone call to 01302-743361

The best free national online lost and found registers (not just pets):

Losers Weepers: <http://www.losersweepers.com>

Lost and Found: <http://www.lostandfound.co.uk>

The Missing List: <http://www.themissinglist.co.uk>

The best national online lost and found pet registers (all pets) which require a membership fee to register lost animals (but provide other services for this fee)
